OCD

FEB 1952 01-4AA

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

	CLASSIFICATION SECRET
	INFORMATION R	REPORT REPORT NO.
	ומנים עמ	CD NO.
COUNTRY	Korea 90000	DATE DISTR. 22 December 1952
SUBJECT	Soviet Military Mission to North Korea	NO. OF PAGES 1
DATE OF INFO.		NO. OF ENCLS.
PLACE ACQUIRED		SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.
THIS DOCUMENT A
OF THE UNITED S AND 794, OF THE LATION OF ITS C	CONTENTS TO OR RECEIPT BY AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS	S IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION
PROHIBITED BY L	LAW. THE REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROMIBITED.	·n.
	Between 15 September and 20 November a So	viet military mission, separate
.	Between 15 September and 20 November a Sortino the Soviet Advisory Group to the Nortino
ATE		th Korean armed forces, was
CULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Nor	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837).
CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Nor-	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as
T CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Nor- quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdor This top-level military mission was estable	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general
NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Nord quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefrom	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total
DO NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Normal quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefrom the Soviet Far East and staff in late of	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total lifted members other than Soviets were
DO NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Normal quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was established a direct result of the conducted battlefrom the Soviet Far East and staff in late of staff of the mission is unknown but identification.	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total lifted members other than Soviets were
DO NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Normal quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefrom the Soviet Far East and staff in late of staff of the mission is unknown but identification of the Czech officers, two Polish officers, the staff of the mission is unknown but identification.	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total lifted members other than Soviets were
DO NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Normal quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefrom the Soviet Far East and staff in late of staff of the mission is unknown but identification of the Czech officers, two Polish officers, the staff of the mission is unknown but identification.	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total lified members other than Soviets were three Mongolian officers, and one
DO NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Normal quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefrom of the Soviet Far East and staff in late of staff of the mission is unknown but identitive Czech officers, two Polish officers, the Hungarian. 1. Comment.	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total ified members other than Soviets were three Mongolian officers, and one
DO NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the North quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefro of the Soviet Far East and staff in late a staff of the mission is unknown but identitive Czech officers, two Polish officers, the Hungarian. 1	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total lified members other than Soviets were three Mongolian officers, and one between
DO NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the Normal quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefrom of the Soviet Far East and staff in late of staff of the mission is unknown but identitive Czech officers, two Polish officers, the Hungarian. 1. Comment.	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total ified members other than Soviets were three Mongolian officers, and one between a Korean staff officers of North ingdong conducted Soviet and Chinese
9	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the North quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefrom of the Soviet Far East and staff in late of staff of the mission is unknown but identify two Czech officers, two Polish officers, the Hungarian. 1. Comment. 24 September and 15 October, the North Korean Army General Headquarters in Kangdon.	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total ified members other than Soviets were three Mongolian officers, and one between a Korean staff officers of North ingdong conducted Soviet and Chinese
DO NOT CIRCULATE	from the Soviet Advisory Group to the North quartered in the Soviet Embassy at Kangdon This top-level military mission was estable a direct result of the conducted battlefrom of the Soviet Far East and staff in late of staff of the mission is unknown but identify two Czech officers, two Polish officers, the Hungarian. 1. Comment. 24 September and 15 October, the North Korean Army General Headquarters in Kangdon.	th Korean armed forces, was ng (126-05, 39-09) (BU 4837). lished in mid-September 1952 as ont tour of the commanding general July and August 1952. The total ified members other than Soviets were three Mongolian officers, and one between a Korean staff officers of North ingdong conducted Soviet and Chinese

- Approved For Release 2003/09/03 : CIA-RDP82-00457R015600570004-7